DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Claims 1-7 and 15 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to nonelected inventions, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Applicant timely traversed the restriction (election) requirement in the reply filed on September 09, 2005.

Applicant's election with traverse of Group II, claims 8-14, in the reply filed on September 09, 2005 is acknowledged. The traversal is on the ground(s) that the invention is directed to a unitary concept. This is not found persuasive because the apparatus can be used for other processes and because the article can be made by other methods as set forth in the previous Requirement for Restriction/Election, and because the searches required for the different groups are not coextensive.

The requirement is still deemed proper and is therefore made FINAL.

Specification

The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: Page 3, the Specification refers to "claims" and the recitation thereof does not comprise a clear and complete description. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 8-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. The claims contain reference numbers and the inclusion thereof causes the scope of the claims to be unclear.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claims 8-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Applicant's Admitted Prior Art (AAPA) in view of USPN 5,716,145 to Eidenbock et al. AAPA describes (Specification Background of the invention; Information Disclosure Statement) well known methods of machining steel connection rods comprising split mandrel insertion and a traction step. Eidenbock et al describe (Abstract) "at least one half-mandrel whose curvature radius... is selected to be by 0.5% to 5% smaller than the constant radius of the bore". The use of one half-mandrel having a smaller radius than the bore in the traction machining method described in AAPA would have been obvious at the time applicant's invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art because the half-mandrel is easy to insert into the bore and the other half mandrel still has a fuller contact surface for holding the work with respect to the traction. Parallel pulling, laser notching, and cooling steps are well known as described in AAPA. The particular disclosed curvature of the thrust surface in Eidenbock et al is at least mostly within the instant claimed range.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The cited art pertains to fracture separating and to jaw tools.
